

HOW INDIA SCALED MT G20

BOOK HIGHLIGHTS

Leadership In Action:

What I Learnt From PM Modi

Leadership is not about avoiding challenges, but about confronting them head- on with courage and clarity of purpose

On December 1, 2022- when India took over the G20 presidency, the energy within Sushma Swaraj Bhawan was electric, marked by excitement & a shared sense of purpose

It was time to stop viewing opportunities solely in terms of economic value, and to shift from a GDP-centric approach to a human-centric perspective

Leadership requires courage and a selfless commitment to service.

Great leaders are distinguished in part by their vision & decisiveness but also by their willingness to take significant risks in pursuit of monumental goals

Taking risks in leadership is not merely about navigating the known, but also about confronting the unknown

Attributing to the success of the G20 presidency, PM Modi exemplified a leadership style that values collaboration and recognizes the collective efforts of the nation

The 5 Qualities

- 1. The consistent emphasis on collective effort, portraying a leader who attributed success to the combined contributions of the entire team rather than individual achievements
- 2. Recognizing the relentless hard work of the diverse G20 team underscored a leadership style that value dedication and persistent effort

The 5 Qualities

3. PM Modi's call for a more relaxed & inclusive environment suggested a departure from traditional bureaucratic norms, showcasing a leader who sought the contributions

4. The encouragement to share experiences informally highlighted a leader who fostered open communication and valued insights of each team member

The 5 Qualities

5. A focus on the cumulative impact of collective efforts indicated a leader who was more interested in lasting results than a momentary acclaim

Lessons Of A Lifetime

PM Modi always approaches challenges with a long-term perspective, considering the broader implications of each decision amongst a host of possible realities

He listens intently, making everyone feel valued & understood - a quality that builds bridges across turbulent waters.

Effective leadership is not just about making decisions but nurturing relationships & creating spaces where others feel empowered to share their thoughts & ideas

Lessons Of A Lifetime

The most striking aspect of PM's leadership is his discipline in listening

When you genuinely listen, you begin to grasp the nuances of their positions, allowing you to connect on a deeper level & engage more meaningfully

Lessons Of A Lifetime

PM Modi's remarkable calmness under pressure stands out. Regardless the provocations he faced, he never raised his voice or react angrily

He showcases that strength is often found in restraint

He embodies resilience, demonstrating that true leadership involves holding firm in the face of external pressures & adversities without wavering

Lessons Of A Lifetime

PM Modi's optimistic outlook encouraged a forward-thinking approach, reminding that maintaining hope is essential to our pursuit of meaningful change

His faith in possibilities is an inspiration to adopt a mindset where curiosity & resilience can coexist
